

Holiday Greetings to You!

This News 4 You is intended to introduce you to all of the resources available on the Mentoring 4 Reading Achievement website, www.M4RA.org

Below are hints for navigating the website.

- www.M4RA.org is the Home Page. This is where you can access “Pages” including the M4RA Action Plan, Instruction Sessions 1 & 2 dates, the M4RA Brochure, etc.
- To locate “Posts” which includes information, photos and forms shared by Mentor Coordinators from all over Ohio: Click on the word “Posts” on the Home Page.
 - New Alphabet Lesson Plans and an Alphabet Graph to motivate students that are working on the Alphabet Packs.
 - The new 47 Phonics Tutoring & Mentoring Packs: Correlated to Decodable Books; Sound, Symbol Books; & Read-Aloud Books
 - Most Frequently Asked Questions by Mentors
 - Reading Mentoring Service Learning High School Course
 - Congratulations! Moved to the Next Book Level
 - New Fluency Passages 4 Comprehension Levels B-E:
“Please let us know if we need to create a 65 wpm Fluency Graph. Since these passages are new, we don’t know if the 85 wpm Fluency Graph is too high of a number to motivate those in Levels B and C. We really welcome your feedback.”
 - Many, many more ideas are on the website, so please look; and send us your creations to share. Thank you!

Wishing all of you a peaceful holiday season,

Amy

Amy Freeman
Mentoring 4 Reading Achievement
Program Director
amy.freeman@M4RA.org
1.844.220.1647 (toll free)
Ohio Coalition for the Education of Children with Disabilities