

Table 1: Disability and Employment Status in 2010-2012 Period

	All adults (age 18+) Disability	All adults (age 18+) No disability	Working-age (18- 64) Disability	Working-age (18-64) No disability
Numbers (000's)
Employed	7,501.6	133,115.2	6,478.4	127,825.1
Unemployed (looking for work)	1,675.7	13,553.8	1,563.1	13,176.6
Not in labor force	27,005.1	54,894.5	12,206.2	34,834.8
Total	36,182.4	201,563.5	20,247.7	175,836.5

	All adults (age 18+) Disability	All adults (age 18+) No disability	Working-age (18- 64) Disability	Working-age (18-64) No disability
Percentages
Employed	20.7%	66.0%	32.0%	72.7%
Unemployed (looking for work)	4.6%	6.7%	7.7%	7.5%
Not in labor force	74.6%	27.2%	60.3%	19.8%
Total	100.0%	100.0%	100.0%	100.0%

Source: CEA calculations based on American Community Survey 2010-2012 data.

Economic Picture of the Disability Community Project

This project is a joint initiative between DOL's Office of Disability Employment Policy, Employment and Training Administration, Chief Economist, Office of the Secretary, and the White House Council of Economic Advisors (CEA).

The tables produced are based on CEA analysis of the Census Bureau's 2010-2012 American Community Survey, matched to the Bureau of Labor Statistics' 2012-2022 occupational projections.