

An Active Learning Make-and-Take Workshop!

A Help Me Grow and Early Intervention Training
Sponsored by ODH/HMG

Providers, parents, service coordinators, advocates, students and early childhood professionals welcome!

- Topic: Hold Everything! Creating 'Stay-Put' Play 'n Learn Spaces for Young Children with Multiple Special Needs
- Description: This interactive workshop will present a brief overview of the principles of Lilli Nielsen's Active Learning approach and then introduce a variety of inexpensive, easy to make 'stay-put' play spaces designed to encourage children with multiple special needs to act on the world around them. A make-it/take-it activity will complete the day.
- Date and Time: Wednesday, September 23, 2015
10:00am – 4:00pm
- Location: Summit County Bd. of DD, 89 Howe Road,
Tallmadge, OH 44278
- Presenter: Kay Clarke, Ph.D. – EIS/TVI/COMS
- Cost: None
- Credit: 5 DD and 4 Social Work Hours Approved
- Course ID#: 1020825

Space is limited. Register now at: <https://oh.train.org>

Questions? Please contact Karen Auble at karen.auble@odh.ohio.gov
(614) 728-9183

NOTE: THIS WORKSHOP WILL BE REPEATED ON MAY 11, 2016 IN MARIETTA, OHIO. Also see Ohio TRAIN for additional 2015-16 visual impairment workshops throughout Ohio.