CONNECT WITH US

This training is designed for parents and professionals and will overview autism spectrum disorder and educational services for children with autism.

Participants will be informed on the five types of autism and the three developmental areas most commonly affected by a diagnosis of autism. Discussion will address Individual Education Program (IEP) goals along with strategies and possible methodologies for educating children identified on the autistic spectrum. A comparison between services received through the Autism Scholarship Program and public school IEP program will be discussed.
