

The READING ADVANTAGE

FREE training on December 5, 2016

6:30 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

at

Hancock County Educational Service Center

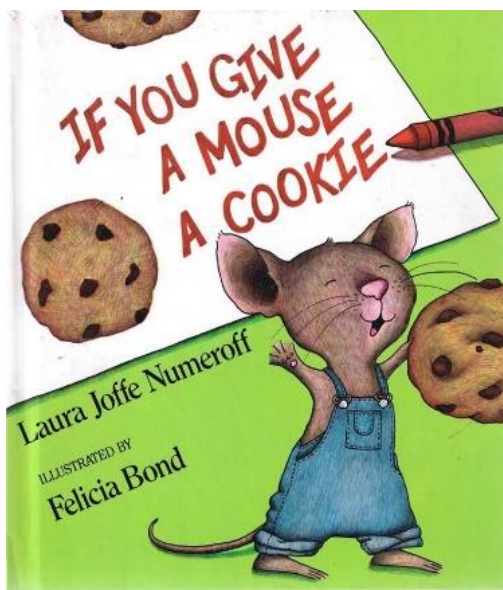

7746 County Road 140

Findlay, OH 45840

(Park in back of building and enter silver door by delivery ramp)

Would you like your child to learn to love reading? Would you like to get more out of books and learn unique ways to share books? Join us for a fun night centered around the book "If you give a Mouse a Cookie". Each family will receive a FREE copy of the book and a packet of activities involving themes of the book to bring home.

This training is for parents/guardians of preschool through grade 2 children. Childcare WILL NOT be provided. Must pre-register for this event!

To register contact:

Laurie Betscher, Hancock County Parent Mentor

419-422-7525, ext. 105 or

betscherl@hancockesc.org

OR

Karen Herold, Findlay City Parent Mentor

419-427-5408 or kherold@fcs.org

This program is sponsored by the Hancock County
And Findlay City Parent Mentor Programs

FREE BOOK PROVIDED!

